Thank you to the Haven Manor Staff!
You're the Best!!!

Hello from Haven Manor!

I will be leaving for Spirit Lake once again to join my husband, so I will be leaving as of January 30th. I would like to thank everyone for their support and friendship and memories we have shared in the past months. What fine people I have worked with and for!

As of January 31st, Haven Manor will welcome Lea Thomsen as the new Activities Coordinator. Lea comes to us from the area and has experience in activities, so I am sure she will be a great asset to Haven Manor.

January was a busy month with our first football tailgate of 2014 in which Nebraska won against Georgia. We enjoyed coffee club, bingo, and singing with Donelle and I. We made sweet tortilla snowflakes on our Kitchen Klan day. We will end the month with a "Blizzard Social".

February is sure to be a fun month, starting with Wii bowling and the Traveling trophy on the 3rd.

We will celebrate "Wear Red Day" and our Resident Birthday Party on the 7th.

For our Kitchen Klan Day, we will be decorating Valentines cookies on the 10th. We will crown our "King and Queen" of hearts, decided by resident vote, and enjoy a Valentines Day party with music by the "Rusty Old Minstrels" on the 14th.

Residents will stay cozy all day on the 26th for "Pajama Day" as we will watch a movie and eat popcorn in our Theater.

Residents will enjoy some retail therapy on a Shopping trip on the 21st.

Coffee Club and Bingo are some regular activities residents enjoy, as well as Bible Study with Pastor Wentzel, and Hymns with Darlene in the afternoon.

Our month will end with our Annual Soup Supper at 6 pm on the 20th! Remember to invite your family for Nancy's "Home Cooked" Soup. Please have your family RSVP by the 17th to ensure we have enough for everyone!

As it is cold & flu season, please use caution when visiting family members if you are feeling under the weather.

Here at Haven Manor we are glad to know that spring is closer every day!

Thanks once again for everything and may God bless you all!

- Dee
